WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight and Tuesday; light to fresh easterly winds.

Case Postponed.

As was stated in the Gazette, the attorneys for John M. Hill, who is charged with conducting a poolroom at St. Asaph, secured a postponement of the case at a hearing on Saturday afternoon, and announced that they would not be bound by their promise to keep closed until the case is settled. This announcement was not made in open court, but at a conference between Judge Charles E. Nicol, Commonwealth Attorney Crandall Mackey and Col. Francis L. Smith, Edmund Burke and C. C. Carlin, attorneys for John M. Hill. At that conference Hill's attorneys tried to get Mr. Mackey to agree to a postponement. Judge Nicol had received a telegram that a very dear friend of his was dying at Chevy Chase, and he said he could not give much time to the hearing. It was finally agreed that Judge Nicol would give each side an hour in which to argue the case. It was then that the attorneys for Hill practically announced that the poolroom would resume soon. The case came up under a demurrer to a petition for a writ of prohibition restraining Justice Jonathan R. Hagan from sitting in the trial of John M. Hill, charged with conducting a poolroom and bookmaking establishment at St. Asaph in violation of the gambling laws of Virginia. Immediately upon the opening of court Attorney C. C. Carlin filed an objection to the hearing of the case on the ground that the notice of the date of the hearing on the demurrer filed by Commonwealth Attorney Mackey was incorrect. Mr. Carlin stated that the name in the notice was to James M. Hill, whereas the indictment was against J. M. Hill, whose name is John M. Hill. Inasmuch as the name was incorrect, they claimed that they had received no notice of the hearing, to which they were entitled. Mr. Mackey opposed a postponement of the case, and remarked that the attorneys were anxious to gain time so that the poolroom might reopen and pay their fees. This brought Col. Smith to his feet with a strenuous objection. Mr. Carlin made no objection. Mr. Burke then spoke at length in reply to Mr. Mackey, who, he said, had made many misstatements. Judge Nicol finally decided that he was bound to sustain the objection that the hearing proceed, on the ground that the notice was made out with a wrong name. The case will come up in the Circuit Court of the county which meets on June 27. By the postponement of the hearing Mr. Hill's attorneys practically gain the point of the original petition, which was that Justice Hagan be prohibited from sitting in the case. Since that petition was filed a new law has gone into effect which makes it compulsory that such cases shall be tried by justices of the peace within the district in which the offense was committed. This will take the case out of Justice Hagan's hands.

Children's Services.

The children's day services in the M. E. Church South last night were interesting. The following programme was well-rendered: Processional; psalm, by the pastor; doxology, congregation; song, "All Nature Praises God," school; recitation, "The Birth of Children's Day," Marian Henshaw; song, "The Happy Children's Day," school; recitation, "Helen's Lullaby," song, "The Children's Jubilee," school; recitation, "Bertram's Dream," song, "Shining, Booming, Singing," primary class; recitation, "Children's Day," Lorne Rishell; recitation, "Caroline West," recitation, "Grandpa and Children's Day," Janet Rishell; song, "This Joyful Day," school; recitation, "The Shields of Salvation," Lillie Grillbortner, Effie Nuckels, Mary Evans and Jessie Crump; song, "We Will Make a Joyful Noise," school; offertory, "Ave Maria," Miss Graves; song, "What a Joyous Time," benediction; T. H. Netherland was director, and Mrs. Geo. Warfield, organist.

The Methodist Protestant Church held its children's service yesterday. In the morning the pastor preached an appropriate sermon to the children. At 6:45 p. m. the special exercises by the Sunday school were held. The pulpit platform was banked with potted flowers. The singing by the school was excellent. The following programme was carried out: Opening chorus, "Waving Ban- ners," prayer by pastor; "Welcome," Bessie Few; solo chorus, "Tell it again," Elizabeth Hantmon; duet, "Little Blossoms," Irvin and Hattie Padgett; chorus, "Forward," solo chorus, "Shining," Pauline Lyles; class chorus, "We yield to none," chorus, "Onward faithful sowers," solo, "Summer days have come again," Eva Devaugh; class exercises, "Go tell them," solo, "A little song for Jesus," Annie Padgett; chorus, "Send the Gospel," solo, "Send the message forth," Florence Brown; chorus, "Lord send me," class chorus, "Tell it to others," chorus, "Our offering," closing chorus, "Crown Him King."

The Baptist Church was filled last night with an audience which greatly enjoyed the children's services held there. An interesting programme of exercises had been prepared, each number of which was well rendered. All who participated acquitted themselves in a creditable manner.

Condition Serious.

Mr. Edgar S. Fleming, who has been ill in a hospital in Washington, was in a critical condition this morning, and the members of his family were summoned to his side. Mr. Fleming is sixty-eight years old. He is a son of the late Archibald Fleming, and is among the most extensively known residents of this city. He is a watchmaker by occupation and served his apprenticeship in Philadelphia. After the expiration of his apprenticeship he began business for himself on the south side of King street, near Royal, continuing in the same for a number of years. For the past ten years he has been the timekeeper in the Treasury Department in Washington. Mr. Fleming's many friends and acquaintances will regret to hear of his sad condition. Recently he has been a sufferer from catarrh, and one of his eyes had been operated upon. Later acute kidney disease developed, and his condition soon became serious.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Marshall Carroll and Andrew Napper, both colored, arrested by Special Officer Mullen for fighting, were fined $5 each.

William Reed and Maria Lomax, both colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Knight charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

William Bolton, arrested by Officer Gill for drunkenness, was fined $2.50.

Lewis Cosby, colored, arrested by Officers Smith and Lyles charged with retaining in his possession a dollar belonging to W. F. Taylor, was fined $2.50.

Charles Cadden, arrested by Officer Mayhugh charged with assaulting Baynor Curtis, was fined $2.50.

W. F. Taylor and Baynor Curtis, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each.

A Pleasant Sunday.

The temperature yesterday was spring-like and the sky clear, and the pleasant conditions were greatly enjoyed. The streets were thronged with young and old all day and late into the night. Average congregations attended the churches in which services were conducted according to the announcement in Saturday's Gazette.

Rev. J. A. Jeffers, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, delivered a special sermon at night to the members of Alexandria Tent, No. 2, Knights of the Macabees.

Children's services were held in the Methodist Protestant Church, the Baptist Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church South at night. These services were interesting and greatly enjoyed by the large congregations who attended them.

Visited Mount Vernon.

The members of the honorary board of Filipino commissioners passed this city yesterday on the dispatch boat Dolphin for the tomb of Washington. They were the guests of the United States navy, Assistant Secretary Darling acting as host. The party, including prominent navy and army officers and representatives of the local citizens' committee, spent the day on the Potomac river aboard the Dolphin. She left the navy yard at 10 o'clock, and after a stop of an hour at Mount Vernon, continued her cruise down the river as far as the Indian Head proving grounds, returning at 5 o'clock. The commissioners left for Philadelphia this morning at 9 o'clock in continuation of their tour of the country.

Charged with Firing Into Train.

The authorities of the county have arrested a man, whose name is not known, who is suspected of having been the person who fired into railway trains near Waterloo recently. The man, it is said, was arrested for the alleged theft of a revolver and was fined $50 in a magistrate's court. Suspicion then pointed to his having committed the other offense, and Frank Smith and James B. Lucas, of this city who were shot twice on the Washington road one evening recently, just prior to a similar attack on a passenger train, have been summoned to the county to endeavor to identify the man. He is described as being unusually tall and as wearing a full red beard.

River Notes.

The schooner Irene, from Nominil with lumber for H. K. Field & Co., has arrived.

The steam yacht Runaway, owned by Mr. Joseph Moore, has been fitted with a new wheel.

A number of colored people of Washington have purchased the Jane Mosely and will run it on the Potomac river this season. Somerset Beach and Lower Cedar Point have been secured as landing points for picnics and summer outings. The company is backed by the eighty-old colored churches in the District of Columbia.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Martha E. McWilliams, whose death occurred last Thursday, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence 227 south Fairfax street. The services were conducted by Rev. H. J. Cutler, of St. Mary's Church, and the remains were placed in a vault in St. Mary's cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. H. Hunter, James Bayne, Richard H. Lyles, Geo. G. Caton, Stewart Smith, Geo. A. Harlow and M. Ahern.

Train Down a Bank.

A southbound freight train of the Southern Railway met with a disaster at an early hour this morning between Burnley and Barboursville, about 95 miles south of this city. A brake beam on one of the cars fell to the track while the train was in motion, and twelve refrigerator cars were derailed and thrown down a bank. Fortunately no one was hurt. The track was blocked for a time and all northbound trains were delayed in their arrival here.

Historic Bookcase.

An order allowing J. H. M. Morris, the administrator of Dr. James Craik, to sell the historic George Washington bookcase belonging to the Craik family, has been entered in Louisville, Ky. The Mount Vernon Association has made an offer of $1,600 for the bookcase with the intention of putting it once more in its old place at Mount Vernon. The bookcase was presented by President Washington to Dr. James Craik, who was his family physician.

The Election Tomorrow.

The general election for Mayor, Aldermen and members of the Common Council will take place tomorrow. The polls will be opened at the usual places from sunrise to sunset. Mr. F. J. Paff, the regularly nominated democratic candidate, and Mr. F. A. Coakley, independent democrat, are the candidates for the mayoralty. The Aldermen and Councilmen nominated at the democratic primary have no opposition.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newton, of Fairfax. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 30c. It's guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Devilled Crabs are made fresh twice daily at "Lancaster's Restaurant" at five o'clock in the afternoon and eight o'clock in the evening. Both phones.

Presentation at Seminary.

Mr. Hunter Lewis, a student at the Theological Seminary of the Episcopal Church near this city and who has been for the past two years the superintendent of the Seminary Sunday school, was the recipient of a handsome present from the teachers and children of the Sunday school yesterday morning at the close of the school, as he was leaving the Seminary, and will be ordained there next Friday, before going to Texas where he expects to work under Bishop Johnston. The present, which is a token of the affectionate esteem in which Mr. Lewis is regarded by the Sunday school, consists of a handsome pocket communion service to be used in administering the sacrament to the sick and afflicted. Mr. Lewis's work as superintendent has been characterized by faithfulness and efficiency, and much regret is expressed at his leaving the Sunday school, although his friends congratulate him on his entrance upon the higher work of the ministry.

The commencement sermon was preached before the Episcopal High School last night at the Seminary Chapel, by Archdeacon Williams of Washington. Mr. Willoughby Reade presided at the organ and the musical part of the service was rendered by the High School choir. Professor Massie, chaplain of the High School, read the evening prayer, assisted by Archdeacon Williams. A large congregation was in attendance. The Rev. Dr. Devries, rector of St. Marks Church, Washington, preached at the Seminary Chapel yesterday morning, and Bishop Kinsolving preached at Christ Church, Groveton, Fairfax county, in the afternoon.

Committee Meetings.

Four committees of the City Council—finance, light, streets and general laws—will hold meetings tonight. The first named will meet Collector Gorman for the examination of tax matters and to close his accounts for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1904. The second will meet for the purpose of approving vouchers, the few outstanding, preparatory to a settlement of the gas works accounts before the retirement of Clerk of Gas S. L. Monroe on the 20th inst. The committees on streets and general laws will meet to consider matters now before them. The several officers of the city for weeks past have been engaged in the preparation of their reports to be presented to Council on Tuesday, June 28. Council tomorrow night will probably elect the Superintendent of Gas which was postponed at the last meeting.

Sermon to Macabees.

At Trinity M. E. Church last night Rev. Mr. Jeffers preached an eloquent sermon to the Macabees of this city. In the course of his remarks he commented upon the life and character of Judas Macabees, in whose honor the present organization of Macabees was named. He stated that the one great principle that characterized his entire life was an undying devotion to the faith of his fathers. He commended the example of Judas Macabees as one to be followed, not merely by the members of the organization which bears his name, but by all men. The cardinal principles of the Macabees of today are patriotism, love, fraternity and protection.

Death of an Old Resident.

Mr. John Leatherland, an old and well-known resident, died at his home, 227 north Henry street, yesterday. The deceased was 79 years old. He leaves a widow and two children—a son and a daughter. Mr. Leatherland was born in England, but came to this country half a century ago and became a resident of Alexandria. During the civil war he was engaged in the wood and coal business, and later conducted a foundry on north Lee street. He was a quiet and good citizen, and during his long residence in this city enjoyed the respect of all who knew him. He was one of the oldest members of Trinity M. E. Church.

Personal.

Rev. Dr. W. A. Wray, who has been on a visit to his son Rev. J. A. Wray, pastor of the Baptist Church in this city, left last night for Knoxville, Tenn. Dr. Wray in conversations with acquaintances he made while here expressed himself as greatly pleased with Alexandria. While he had often passed through the city on trains, this was the first time he had stopped here.

Mr. Fred Grillbortner, of this city, is seriously ill in Asheville, N. C.

Miss Nellie Hoy has returned from Richmond after a pleasant visit.

Miss Emma Glascock, of Upperville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. W. Burke, on Prince street.

Knocked Down by Train.

Shortly before eleven o'clock this morning an elderly colored man named William Brown, who was on a moving electric train on Royal street, near King, jumped to the ground and was struck by the train and knocked down. His head came in contact with the cobblestones, and his face and one eye were cut, while he sustained serious bruises on other parts of his body. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital where Dr. Smith rendered surgical assistance. He at first said he lived on Washington street, but later stated that he came here from Washington.

Sent to an Asylum.

The 61-year-old widow of the late Frank E. Corbett, for many years a resident of this city, and her daughter, Nellie Corbett, were removed from their home at 302 Seaton street, Washington northeast, Saturday evening to the Government Hospital for the Insane pending an examination into their mental condition. Both are said to have been suffering with hallucinations that persons for some time have been persecuting them. It is said that Mrs. Corbett has not been out of the house for several years, but her daughter has gone and come as she pleased.

Baseball.

The Alexandria team crossed bats with the Loudham Athletic Club nine, of Loudham, Md., Saturday afternoon. The game was played on the old fair grounds before a large crowd, and resulted in a score of 3 to 2 in favor of the local team. Hayden and Kraft composed the battery for the Alexandrians and Becket and Peters for the visitors. Tomorrow afternoon the Alexandrians will contest with the Leesburg nine.

A marriage license was issued in Washington Saturday to William Brnst and Lillie J. Lane, of Fairfax county.

The Great Circus.

The World Famous Nickel Plate Shows will exhibit here on the 20th. The bareback riders, the aerial acts, leaping and tumbling, trick mules, ponies, horses and elephants are all good and the show put together in a way that is pleasing. This show is said to be the largest popular price circus in the world.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Gordon B., the eighteen year old son of the late D. W. Whiting, died at an early hour yesterday morning at his home on north Fairfax street. He had been ill about ten days with typhoid fever.

A resident of the First ward who had been struck and hurt by a baseball thrown by a colored youth on Wolf street yesterday evening, secured the ball and cut it into a number of pieces. This species of annoyance is chronic in the streets of this city, and the force with which balls is hurled often renders it dangerous to pedestrians.

The Old Dominion Boat Club are considering the advisability of getting up an invitation regatta to be held July 4. The idea is to invite Richmond and Petersburg to send four-oared crews to meet their two crews in separate races, and to also fill in a large programme with matches between the Annapolis and Potomac clubs of Washington.

Thrown From a Wagon.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well-known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Card.

Having been debarred from asking for the support of my fellow citizens in the primary election, by reason of the great cost, I respectfully ask that they will give me due consideration at the general election tomorrow. If I am elected Mayor, I feel assured that my past record of citizenship will be sufficient guarantee that in the discharge of the duties of the office I shall be actuated entirely by a sense of what is right and proper.

Respectfully,
F. A. COAKLEY,
(Candidate for Mayor).
